Dr. Horatio Nelson Jackson of Burlington, Vermont was the first to drive an automobile across the U.S. in 1903. Someone challenged Jackson that he couldn't make it to New York City by car in less than 90 days. He along with a 22-year-old bicycle racer and gasoline mechanic set off to achieve the feat in a used 20 horsepower Winton touring car. The duo completed the journey in less than 64 days. The cost of the journey was around $8,000.

In 1968, Vermont legislators decided to enact a state-wide ban on the installation of billboards. The authorities implemented this change to preserve the state's natural beauty. The ban helped boost tourism. Vermont became the second state to ban billboards, Hawaii was first state in the 1920's. Maine followed in the 1980's and Alaska in 1998.

Flamin' Hot Cheetos were developed by a janitor at Frito-Lay, Richard Montanez, who got the idea after putting chili powder on some reject Cheetos and then pitched it to the CEO. He's now a successful executive and motivational speaker, and a movie is in the works about his life.

Local authorities in two Vermont towns shocked the nation in 2008 by passing resolutions aimed at the arrest of the then President George W. Bush and Dick Cheney.

The resolution meant that individuals could effect a citizens’ arrest if the two men ever visited Marlboro or Brattleboro. The town came to this decision because they felt that the two leaders violated the constitution.

Abraham Lincoln is in the Wrestling Hall of Fame. Defeated only once in approximately 300 matches, Lincoln reportedly talked a little smack in the ring. According to Carl Sandburg's biography of Lincoln, Honest Abe once challenged an entire crowd of onlookers after dispatching an opponent: "I'm the big buck of this lick. If any of you want to try it, come on and whet your horns." There were no takers.

VENTURES

It's always been easier for me to help others

help myself

As a Veteran, when someone raises their hand for help, you're often one of the first ones to respond. But it's also okay to get help for yourself. Maybe you want or need assistance with employment, stress, finances, mental health or finding the right resources. No matter what it is, you earned it. And there's no better time than right now to ask for it. Don't wait. Reach out.
